  - Setup and Teardown
  - WhizKids
  - First Impressions
  - Audio/ Visual
  - Music
- 3. Planning Center Online — As Jake transitions out of his ministry position and we look towards the future we are going to be deleting the "Sunday Morning Volunteers" GroupMe. PLEASE setup your Planning Center account ASAP so we can best communicate with and honor you as our volunteers. Go to planningcenteronline.com, connect to our church, and sign up for text alerts.
- 4. VBS - Due to recent overwhelming damage that has been done to our area, and surrounding community we are choosing to postpone our VBS for this year until further notice. We're sorry for any inconvenience this may cause but we want to focus our efforts on helping our neighbors recover.

QUESTIONS

READ Genesis 9:18 - 10:32

1. What are some foods or drinks that are the most tempting to you?
2. After reading this passage, does your perception of Noah, the righteous man, change?
Why or why not?
3. Read Genesis 9:20-29. How did Noah cause Ham to stumble? How did Ham's sin have repercussions for his descendants?
4. Do choices that you make now affect your children? Your grandchildren? Why or why not?
5. Since God desires us to be holy, what will you do to pursue holiness? How will you help your family pursue holiness?
6. Have you ever studied one of the biblical genealogies to see why they are there?
7. Since we learn from this how God oversees the nations, how should it help us in trusting Him with our own lives?
8. The problem of evil does not go away. How does Nimrod's story help us be at peace even while we see that reality?
